

Physician Performance Insights Coming Soon from PEAQ<sup>SM</sup>

In July, physicians eligible for our Physician Efficiency, Appropriateness, and Quality<sup>SM</sup> program can view their Physician Performance Insights in Availity® Essentials. PPI reports show how physicians compare to their peers and include information on improving performance.

Physicians receive PPI reports if they provided care to a minimum number of BCBSTX members in the report timeframe and practice in the following specialties:

Medical	Surgical	Primary Care
Cardiology	Cardiothoracic Surgery	Family Medicine
Endocrinology	Ophthalmology	Internal Medicine
Gastroenterology	Orthopedic Surgery	Pediatrics
Nephrology	Urology
Obstetrics and Gynecology	Vascular Surgery
Pulmonary
Rheumatology

The PPI reports being released in July are based on our May 2022 methodology. You can view and download last year’s PPI report in Availity until the new report is released in July. If you don’t yet have an Availity account, register here at no cost.

Sample Ratings

Provider Finder® to Highlight Ratings

Beginning in August, Provider Finder® will include performance ratings from the PPI reports released in 2023 for cost efficiency, medical appropriateness and quality of patient care.

Provider Finder profiles for physicians who were highly rated in these areas will display a “Top Performing Physician” designation. The designation helps our members make informed care decisions. Members who get care from top performers may be eligible for Member Rewards.

Results from 2024 PPI reports will appear on Provider Finder in 2025.
