

August participant emails

Hello! This month we wrap up Annual Enrollment communications and set the table for plan year communications.

We'll only send one email in August after Annual Enrollment ends: a Where to Go for Care reminder.

This email tells your employees about the Where to Go for Care poster in their lunch or break room at school. It also provides links to the two versions we created – Texas themed and teacher themed – with information about how to print them.

We're also giving you advance notice of a communication coming in September: a new plan year newsletter. This digital communication is about TRS-ActiveCare health plans and includes important coverage and wellness benefits information, savings tips, links to our new "How to" videos, and more.

This participant communication will be sent around September 15. Your September Benefits Administrator (BA) overview email will include more details and important BA-related information.

Thank you again for all you do,
Your TRS-ActiveCare Team
